MORE BOMBS DROPPED ON DOVER BY GERMAN NAVY AVIATOR

PARIS, Dec. 22 (Associated Press).-The Chamber of Deputies voted unanimously to-day an appropriation of $8,500,000,000 france ($1,700,000,000) to cover the expenses of the next six months, including the cost of the war LONDON, Dec. 23 .- The Daily Chronicle publishes the following de-epatch, dated Belgium, Tuesday:

"A German seroplane passed over Tpres early yesterday morning and dropped a smoke bomb over the civil hospital to give the German artillery the range. Soon afterward shalls began to fall on the hospital, wounding twenty-four women and children, who were patients or inmates of the almshouse there. This new bombardment also wrecked many buildings around the hospital, which had hitherto escaped. The people of Ypres ged, some to Dunkirk and others to Purnes and La Pannem.

Fog caused a slackening of the fighting near Arras. Advances are plaimed near Perthes-les-Hurlus, where German machine guns were captured, and progress or the driving back of counter attacks is reported near Beauselour and in the forest of La Grurie. Near Boursuilles the French apparently lost to the Germans.

The text of the communication follows

Yesterday in Belgium we made slight progress between the see and the highway from Nieuport to Westende, as well as in the region between Steenstrawe and Bixschoote, where we occupied a forest, some bouses and a redoubt.

"To the east of Bethune, working in conjunction with the British Army, we recaptured the village of Givenchy-les-La Basse, which had been lost to us.

"In the region of Arres a heavy fog made it necessary for both the enemy and ourselves to lesses our activities.

To the east of Amiena, on the Alone, and in Champagne, there have been artillery engagements.

"In the region of Parthenies Hurius we carried, after a spirited camenade and two amoults, the last section of the line which we occupied in part Dec. 21. We made an average gain of 800 yards. In the last treach which came into our possession we captured a section of machine gune, including the gun crows. A violent counter-attack was repulsed.

"We also made progress to the northeast of Beausejour, where further counter-attacks on the part of the enemy were without

There has been a perceptible advance on the part of our troops in the forest of La Grurie against a front of trenches 400 yards wide and running not less than 350 yards deep.
